Welcome!

We welcome you to the Divine Liturgy / Soorp Badarak and invite all who are Baptized and Chrismated in, or are in communion with, the Armenian Church to receive the Sacrament of Holy Communion. If you are new to our parish and would like information about our many parish groups, please ask any Parish Council member on duty at the lobby desk. Make certain you sign our Guest Book before you leave so we can be in touch. Enter to worship the Lord Jesus Christ who loves you and depart with His love to serve others.

TODAY'S GOSPEL: John 5:19-30

Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, the Son can do nothing of his own accord, but only what he sees the Father doing; for whatever he does, that the Son does likewise. For the Father loves the Son, and shows him all that he himself is doing; and greater works than these will he show him, that you may marvel. For as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so also the Son gives life to whom he will. The Father judges no one, but has given all judgment to the Son, that all may honor the Son, even as they honor the Father. He who does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent him. Truly, truly, I say to you, he who hears my word and believes him who sent me, has eternal life; he does not come into judgment, but has passed from death to life.

"Truly, truly, I say to you, the hour is coming, and now is, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear will live. For as the Father has life in himself, so he has granted the Son also to have life in himself, and has given him authority to execute judgment, because he is the Son of Man. Do not marvel at this; for the hour is coming when all who are in the tombs will hear his voice and come forth, those who have done good, to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil, to the resurrection of judgment.

"I can do nothing on my own authority; as I hear, I judge; and my judgment is just, because I seek not my own will but the will of him who sent me."

Guidelines for Reverence and Respect during the Divine Liturgy, Soorp Badarak

In the Armenian Orthodox Church when we enter the Holy Temple/Dajar for our sacred service, it is important to remember where we are and who else is present. It is, therefore, necessary to maintain decorum and regard for other worshippers in our dress and attire as well as our behavior, taking note that others present are praying and we should not be a distraction to them when we enter the church while Badarak is taking place. Therefore, please observe the following to guide you in your worshipful behavior and dress code:

- As you enter Christ's Church where God is present ... bless yourself with the sign of the Cross, when exiting and also when you cross or walk by the Holy Altar. Jesus Christ is present always in His Body and Blood, therefore whenever passing by the Altar (whether at the back or front of the church), stop and face the Holy Altar and reverence Him by bowing and blessing yourself.
- Refrain from any long conversation with anyone you encounter. We are here to pray, not to have conversations. A friendly smile or greeting by handshake or embrace is fine, but then turn your attention to the Holy Altar and the service itself.
- If you have a candle to offer a prayer before the icons, do so quietly before taking your place in the pew. When reaching your seat, bow your head and bless yourself with the sign of the Cross to begin and enter the prayers of the Badarak.
- Use good judgment in your dress on Sundays. Short mini-skirts are not permitted nor are strapless, low cut dresses or blouses, especially if you are to receive Holy Communion. Short shorts and bare feet with thongs in the summer months are not proper either.

- During the General Confession follow along, kneel and respond saying MEGHA ASDOODZOH when instructed by the Deacons.
- During Communion do not chew gum. Women, please remove smudging lipstick. And for all, do not hold conversations while standing in the Communion lines. By tradition, it is customary to wait until after Holy Communion is distributed before returning to your pews, but due to the large number of communicants you may return immediately to your seats.

If you arrive while the Liturgy is in progress, please respectfully wait before entering as instructed by the ushers. Please do not move about during...

- Processions at the Altar or around the Church during the reading of the day's lections from the chancel and at the Holy Altar
- During the recitation of the Nicene Creed
- During the Consecration of the Host and Wine· During the singing or reciting of the Hayr Mer (The Lord's Prayer)
- During the Sermon or Homily of the day

At the conclusion of the Divine Liturgy and after the final blessing is offered, it is customary to approach the Holy Gospel and kiss it before departing. Again, standing in line to receive the blessing in the main aisle, please refrain from chit chat and conversations. The persons ahead or behind you may be in thoughtful prayer, so PLEASE be respectful to them.

Do unto others as you would have them do unto you.

- Father Garabed
