Welcome!

We welcome you to the Divine Liturgy / Soorp Badarak and invite all who are Baptized and Chrismated in, or are in communion with, the Armenian Church to receive the Sacrament of Holy Communion. If you are new to our parish and would like information about our many parish groups, please ask any Parish Council member on duty at the lobby desk. Make certain you sign our Guest Book before you leave so we can be in touch. Enter to worship the Lord Jesus Christ who loves you and depart with His love to serve others.

TODAY'S GOSPEL: John 14:25-31

"These things I have spoken to you, while I am still with you. But the Counselor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all that I have said to you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you; not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid. You heard me say to you, 'I go away, and I will come to you.' If you loved me, you would have rejoiced, because I go to the Father; for the Father is greater than I. And now I have told you before it takes place, so that when it does take place, you may believe. I will no longer talk much with you, for the ruler of this world is coming. He has no power over me; but I do as the Father has commanded me, so that the world may know that I love the Father. Rise, let us go hence."

The Sunday Collection / Offertory

Beginning today, the Sunday morning offertory collection will be taken after the Hymn "Kohanamk" following Holy Communion and before the final Prayer of St. John Chrysostom, "Vor Orhnes."

PENTECOST—HOKEKALOUST

Pentecost falls on the tenth day after Ascension or fifty days after Easter. Pentecost is the name of two feasts: one Jewish and the other Christian. Pentecost was one of the principal festivals of the early church. The Jewish Pentecost served as a religious celebration at the end of the harvest. Consequently, it was called the Feast of Harvest.

The Christian feast celebrates the coming of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles as they were gathered in the Upper Room. They were given grace, the ability to speak in different languages, and the courage to travel everywhere to preach the Good News of Christ. Two of the twelve Apostles, St. Thaddeus [also known as Jude] and St. Bartholomew came to Armenia preaching the Gospel of Christ and setting the seeds of the Christian Faith.

Pentecost is a festival of thanksgiving for the first fruits of the Holy Spirit; thus, it is correlated to the Jewish festival which commemorates the first fruits of nature. In Armenian the name Hokekaloust, means "coming of the Holy Spirit."

Detroit Masonic Temple Tour
Sponsored by Men's Society of
St. John Armenian Church
Saturday, July 14, 2012

John Kalajian of the Men's Society of St. John Armenian Church has set up a tour of the Detroit Masonic Temple for Saturday, July 14, 2012. The tour is a family event and children are welcome. The tour will begin at 10 am and last about two hours. There is free parking in the rear of the building off of Second Street. The cost of the tour is a nominal fee of $5/person which will be donated to the Detroit Masonic Temple Library Fund.

The Masonic Temple is 14 stories tall, has 1037 rooms, has approximately 12 million cubic feet of space, and the main theater stage is the second largest stage in the United States. Besides the seven Craft Lodge Rooms (each having different decorative treatments/styles), there are several ballrooms, a cathedral and a mammoth drill hall comprising 17,500 square feet of open floor space and one of only three "floating floors" to be found in the United States.

If there is a very large request to attend we would try and get a second date made available. RSVP's are required to ensure we have enough tour guides present for our group. Please contact John Kalajian by email jrkalajian@gmail.com. For those of you, who do not have email, please call Dan Cristiano at 313-291-3194 and he will make sure John is made aware of your request.

Memorial Day, Monday, May 28th

St. John's complex will be closed in observance of the national holiday.
